From Tuesday June 12, to Saturday June 16, 1750.

Naples, May 26.

THE King has appointed the Duke of Invitti to be one of the Members of the Supreme Council of Sta Chiara. On the 13th Inſtant deſerted, when on Duty at one of the advanced Poſts of this City, a Piquet of Grenadiers out of the Swiſs Regiment Jauch, but being followed by a Party of Bailiffs, were overtaken and arreſted near Capoa, and conducted to this City. The Corporal and two of the Soldiers have been ſince executed, and the others condemned to the Gallies. The Court, on Notice of the Arreſt at Rome of the Prince of Filomarino, jun. at the King's Requeſt, ordered immediately a Detachment both of Horſe and Foot to proceed to Portella, to receive him from the Pope's Juriſdiction, and conduct him hither. We Learn from Leghorn, that an Algerine Corſair took laſt Week a Genoeſe Ship richly laden.

Rome, May 30. The Pope, to provide againſt the Scarcity of ſmall Money in this City, has ordered a large Quantity of Plate to be coined immediately at the Mint into Carlins. The Fraternity of the Trinity, who from the Beginning of January to April laſt, having laid out the Sum of 52000 Crowns in receiving and maintaining upwards of 145,000 Pilgrims, who in the Space of four Months came into this City from all Parts, finding itſelf incapable to bear ſo great an Expence, have petitioned the Pope for Aſſiſtance, or to ſupply them by way of Loan, with ſuch Sums of Money as they may have Occaſion for, as the Fraternity may not be obliged to diſpoſe of their Eſtates. On the 29th the Pope, attended by his Retinue and Guards, ſet out for Caſtle Candolfo, where he propoſes to paſs ſome Weeks. The ſame Day he cauſed an Edict to be publiſhed, forbidding the Courſe of under-weight Roman Zekeens, of which a large Quantity have been ſent lately into this City from Naples and other Places.

Florence, June 5. General Stampa, agreeable to the Permiſſion he has obtained from the Emperor, has fixed his Departure from Piſa to Milan for the 17th Inſtant; he proceeds by way of Genoa, the Republick having ordered one of their Gallies to attend him from Lerici to Genoa.

Parma, June 6. The Ducal Palace is ordered to be immediately repaired and beautified for the Reception of the Court. The Secretary of the Finances, the Abbe Serrati, having been diſmiſſed from that and his other Employments, has petitioned for Leave to retire from Court, which has been granted him. The Poſt of Governor of this City, vacant by the Death of the late Marquis Luchefini, is not yet diſpoſed of, but 'tis generally thought it will be given to the Marquis de Mari.

Milan, June 6. Count Harrach has at laſt obtained his Recall, and is preparing to ſet out for Vienna, to take Poſſeſſion of the new Poſt lately conferred on him by the Empreſs Queen; and Count Pallavicini ſucceeds him in the Government of this Dutchy. The magnificent Feaſts given at Turin, on Occaſion of the Marriage of the Duke of Savoy with the Infanta of Spain, have drawn the greateſt Part of our Nobility thither.

Aranjuez, June 8. On Saturday May 30, which was St. Fernando's Day, whoſe Name the King bears, their Majeſties received the Compliments of the Nobility and Foreign Miniſters, who were afterwards magnificently entertained at Dinner by the Marquis de l'Enſenada, Secretary of State. In the Evening the King, Queen, and Infante Cardinal, attended by the Court, walked in the Gardens belonging to this Palace, where ſeveral Bands of Muſick were placed amongſt the Trees for the Entertainment of their Majeſties and his Highneſs. The Nobility who compoſed the Family which was appointed to attend the Dutcheſs of Savoy to the Frontiers of this Kingdom, returned hither upon the Eve of St. Fernando's Day, in order to pay their Court upon that Occaſion, and were graciouſly received by their Majeſties, who are extremely pleaſed with the magnificent Manner in which they have executed their Commiſſion. Letters from Cadiz mention, that the Arrival of 45 Sail of Engliſh Ships in that Bay, laden with Corn, has had no Effect upon the Price of that Commodity.

Dantzick, June 10. The Price of Corn, which was greatly riſen on Account of vaſt Quantities being bought up by the Ruſſian and Swediſh Commiſſaries, begins now to fall, on the preſent Appearance of a plentiful Harveſt. We learn by our laſt Letters from Warſaw, that neither the Deputies of the Magiſtrates, nor thoſe of the Citizens of this City, have been able to obtain an Audience of his Majeſty; but that the Great Chancellor, Count Malachowsky, had aſſured them, that his Majeſty would give great Attention to their Complaints; that he would neglect nothing in his Power to re-eſtabliſh a perfect Harmony between them; and that they ſhould on every Occaſion receive particular Marks of his Favour.

Vienna,

[Price Two-pence.]

Vienna, June 10. Advice has been received at Court by Expreſs, that the Princeſs of Hohenzollern Sigmaringen was happily delivered of a Prince on the 29th paſt. On Saturday laſt her Imperial Majeſty came hither from Schonbrun, and the next Day their Imperial Majeſties, accompanied by the Archduke Joſeph, ſet out for Laxembourg. A Project is on Foot for obliging the Clergy to pay their Proportion of all publick Taxes.

Copenhagen, June 13. The Baron de Bernſdorff, whom his Majeſty has appointed Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, in the Room of the late Count Schulin, arrived here the 3d Inſtant from Paris, and the next Day waited on his Majeſty, and met with a gracious Reception. The Day of the King's Departure to viſit the Daniſh Iſlands, two Ships of War were launched in his Majeſty's Preſence, after which he ſet out on his Tour. All the Troops in the different Iſlands his Majeſty viſits, will be reviewed by him, accompanied by General de Lerke, Secretary at War, who attends his Majeſty.

Dreſden, June 14. A few Days ago the Prince and Princeſs Royal gave a grand Ball to the Lords and Ladies of the Court in the Garden of the Count de Bruhl, ſituated in the Neighbourhood of d'Oſtewize. Yeſterday a Fire broke out in the Suburbs of this City, which burnt down many Houſes before it was extinguiſhed.

Ratisbon, June 14. By Letters from Munich we learn, that the continual Complaints the Inhabitants of Bavaria had made againſt the Multiplicity of Incidents which prolonged their Proceedings at Law, had at length determined the Elector to order an Ordonnance to be publiſhed, whereby his Electoral Highneſs greatly abridges for the future all thoſe Proceedings throughout his Dominions.

Paris, June 19. Yeſterday Morning an Expreſs arrived at Court from the Marqueſs de la Chetardie, our Ambaſſador at Turin, with an Account, that the Infanta of Spain, now Dutcheſs of Savoy, had made her publick Entry into that City on the 4th Inſtant; and that the Feaſts and Rejoycings on that Occaſion were moſt ſurprizing. The Court continues its Reſidence at Compeigne, where his Majeſty often takes the Diverſion of hunting.

Hague, June 23. The States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland continue their Aſſembly. Count Czernicheff, the Ruſſian Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Great Britain, arrived here from London on the 19th Inſtant; that Evening he waited on the Prince of Orange, and the next Morning ſet forward on his Journey for Herrenhauſen. By Letters received laſt Poſt from Hanover we learn, that Prince William of Heſſe Caſſel, who had been there for ſome Days, and aſſiſted at the Reviews his Britannick Majeſty had made of Part of the Troops of that Electorate, had taken his Leave of his Majeſty, and was ſet out on his Return to Caſſel.

Whitehall, June 16.

The King has been pleaſed to preſent John Bourne, Clerk, to the Vicarage of Crondall in the County of Southampton and Dioceſe of Wincheſter, void, and in his Majeſty's Gift in full Right by Lapſe or otherwiſe.

Whitehall, May 17, 1750.

Whereas the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England Trading to the Eaſt Indies, have, by their Petition, humbly repreſented to the Lords Juſtices, that divers Goods and Merchandizes, belonging to them, have been ſtolen out of their Ships and Lighters, and out of their Warehouſes, after the ſame have been landed; which Practices the ſaid Company greatly attribute to the Perſons who buy thoſe Goods when ſtolen; Their Excellencies, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice ſuch Offenders, and to deter others from committing ſuch illegal Practices for the Future, are pleaſed to promiſe his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall diſcover any of his, her, or their Accomplices, concerned either in ſtealing of the ſaid Goods, or in purchaſing the ſame, knowing them to be ſtolen, ſo as he, ſhe, or they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
